

TYPES OF BALLOONS

-Basic speech balloons for normal speaking - verbally.

-Shouting balloon with exclamatory verbal speech.

Thought Balloons:

-Basic thought balloon for thinking - not verbal.

-Balloon involving imagining a picture.

Off-panel dialogue Balloons:

-Balloon used when someone is speaking off-panel (off-screen) and whatever picture is viewed does not connect (is not aware) with said speaker.

-Balloon used when someone speaks off-panel and the person or thing pictured makes a connection (is looking at or aware of their presence) with the speaker.
(note: inward tail points to where the speaker is)

Narrative Balloons:

-Narrative speech spoken by the narrator or can be used when someone is referring to a time in the past, such as a flashback sequence.
(note: often presented as a different color and/or has thicker border)