

NAME:

DATE:

EXAM— The British Isles

1.- Design a diagram about the British Isles.

2.- Match and write. Use the numbers.

1) British Isles - 2) Great Britain - 3) Isle of Ireland - 4) United Kingdom 5) England
6) Scotland - 7) Wales - 8) Northern Ireland - 9) Republic of Ireland

NAME:

DATE:

3.- Write.

The British Isles United Kingdom Great Britain The Isle of Ireland	are is	formed by made up of composed by	two islands three countries one country and one state four countries	:	England, Scotland and Wales Northern Ireland and the Republic of Ireland England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland The Isle of Ireland and Great Britain
---	-----------	--	---	---	---

a)

b) c) d)

4.- Answer the questions.

- a) What's the smallest country in the United Kingdom?
- b) How many national parks are there in the United Kingdom?
- c) Who was born in Stratford-upon-Avon?
- d) Why are famous Oxford and Cambridge?
- e) Where was the Titanic built?
- f) When was the Giant's Causeway formed?
- g) Can you go by train from France to the U.K.? How?

5.- Fill the gaps with the words in the text box.

than - country - bridges - visit - popular - because - attractions - cities - river - longest England is the biggest _____ in the United Kingdom. The English capital city is London. It's one of the most famous _____ in the world, _____ there are a lot of tourist _____. In London you can _____ Big Ben, Trafalgar Square or the Tower Bridge. In London there are a lot of _____ over the _____ Thames. It's the most _____ river in the United Kingdom, but it's not the _____. The river Severn is longer _____ Thames.