Decide if You Are a good ENTREPRENEUR

The good news about starting a self-catering company is that you can start small. As your catering business grows, you may consider taking on catering as your full-time profession. Weigh your options: can you afford to lose a steady paycheck? How do you handle stress? (Be honest). Consider your family situation. Running a catering business involves long hours, especially on nights, weekends and holidays. How will that affect your spouse and/or children? Being your own boss is a highly personal choice that shouldn't be made in haste.

Exercice :

Think about this questions and fill in the blanks with your answers.

Would you be a good ENTREPRENEUR?
1- What's your formal and informal formation?
2- Do you have money enough or possibilities to get it?.
3- Do you know somebody that could be your partneer? What's his/her formation? Is he usefull for your business?
4- Would you be able to find somewhere to place your business?
