Relax, angry volcano!

In the past, many people believed that volcanoes were magic mountains. Every year, they climbed the hill to offer presents to the volcano. "If the volcano has food, animals and flowers, it is happy", they thought. But one day, the volcano got angry. It erupted. "Look! The top of the volcano is smoking!" they said. "Let's go! The fire will destroy the city! We are in danger!". Now we know that volcanoes erupt because of a chemical reaction. So, is the story true or false? It is a legend!
