Barefoot in the park

This squirrel is very brave. It is not afraid of the photographer. They are very close to each other! The squirrel is English and lives in Saint James Park, in London. In autumn, the park is beautiful. The leaves turn brown and fall from the trees. Squirrels sleep in the holes of trunks. They go up and down the trees all the time. They look for food and collect it for the rest of the year. Squirrels bury the food. Look! He has found something to eat now! 'I love nuts', he says. 'Nuts are tasty! Yummy!'
