

What can you do in London?

You have to write an Informative Essay (about 120 words) of London, in the United Kingdom, not the one in Canada.

Your exercise should contain tourist information about the city. Remember, though, this is not a leaflet giving a list of all the monuments. You can mention a couple or three of them given as examples. If so, you can also include some bits of this monument. But especially take into account that you are giving a general idea of London.

You can visit these sites to have some information about the city before writing your essay.

As well, you can go to google earth (<http://earth.google.es>), to have a 3D view of the city and some photos of the different places.

Enjoy the visit!
