

1st Bat Review exercises

INFINITIVES / GERUNDS

1. going      2. to be      3. to meet      4. building      5. taking off

RELATIVE CLAUSES

1. The clerk, who was very polite, helped me
2. Jessica has a coin collection, which contains many rare coins.
3. Here is a postcard of the village, where we spent three days.
4. I met a friend last week, whose daughter is an astrologist.
5. The palace which stands outside the town was built 200 years ago.
6. The man, to whom we wrote an angry letter, left town.
7. You can see many snakes in the zoo, some of which are very poisonous.

CONDITIONALS

1. If I were strong enough, I would be able to carry this suitcase.
2. If Dana hadn't woken up late, she wouldn't have been late for work.
3. Your sore throat would improve if you took a lemon tea.
4. If you eat so much, you'll put on weight
5. If Tony had a microwave, he would prepare meals faster.
6. The driver would have caused an accident if he hadn't fallen asleep.
7. George could go to the theatre if he weren't so busy.
8. If the house had been nearer the city, we would have bought it.

PASSIVE

1. The soldiers were picked up from the base with the jeep.
2. The scandal was hushed up by the committee.
3. The offer of a company car was turned down by Sheila.
4. We were shown around the laboratory by the scientist.
The laboratory was shown around to us by the scientist.
5. The tickets for the concerts needn't be bought in advance.
6. This story has to be translated into Spanish.
7. Milk mustn't be left outside the fridge.

TENSES

- A: Do you know      B: haven't seen ... think ... is probably doing
Doesn't eat ... finds ... don't have ... usually telephones
A: have you been living      B: are staying ... have found