Presents...

SHOWS IN ENGLISH FOR ESO AND BACHILLERATO
STUDENTS

Andrew marshall presents two performances created to captivate the imagination of their audience and allow the students to enjoy english in a theatrical environment. These original comedies have already been recieved with great success in Institutos de Educación Secundaria, Escuelas Oficiales de Idiomas and Ciclos Formativos throughout spain with positive feedback from both students and teachers alike.

REVOLTING RHYMES

por ROALD DAHL

REVOLTING RHYMES BY ROALD DAHL

Roald Dahl takes our best known childrens' stories and gives them a thoroughly mischievous twist. You've never heard them quite like this before. But Roald Dahl's wicked prose is only part of the fun. Even before the performance begins the audience is actively taking part.

This open and positive participation continues during the performance with the students also helping the actor create a character to act out the rhymes in all their revolting splendour. Giving the students an opportunity to be involved not only keeps their interest and attention but also allows them to enjoy themselves as an audience. Through physical comedy, the outrageous prose of Roald Dahl is made accessible and enjoyable for high school students from 4° ESO and Bachillerato.

*The duration of the performance is approximately 50 minutes.
