

Grammar

be: affirmative, negative and questions

1 ★ Choose the correct word.

I(m) / 're a really good student.

- The DVDs are / is popular.
- She 's / 'm next to the window.
- He isn't / aren't from France.
- We isn't / aren't bad students.
- You 's / 're really popular!
- He 'm not / isn't in the classroom.
- Are / Is you good at English?
- Are / Is your dictionary under the chair?
- Are / Am the questions difficult?
- Are the books interesting? Yes, they're / they are.

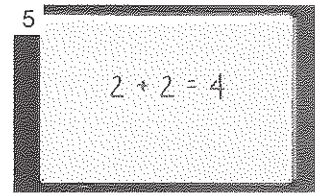

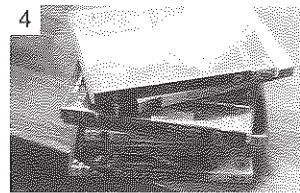

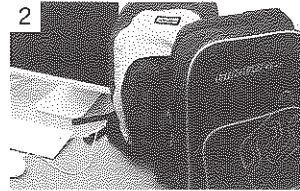

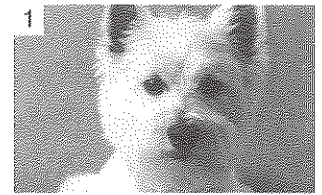

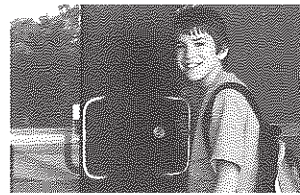

2 ★★ Rewrite the sentences using the negative.

I'm English.

I'm not English.

- The video games are very popular.
.....
- They're fourteen years old.
.....
- The teacher's car is expensive.
.....
- The CD player is in the classroom.
.....
- You're in my class.
.....
- We're from Rome.
.....
- English is a difficult language.
.....

3 ★★ Look at the pictures and write questions and short answers.

Are you next to the window? No, I'm not.

- it small?
- the bags on the desk?
- the laptop cheap?
- the DVDs in the bag?
- the exercise easy?

4 ★★★ Complete the interview using the correct form of be.

Jack Are you a student, Toby?

Toby Yes, I (1)

Jack (2) you twelve years old?

Toby No, I (3), I (4) thirteen.

Jack (5) your school interesting?

Toby Yes, it (6) But it (7) easy.

Jack (8) your teachers nice?

Toby Yes, they (9) They (10) very interesting. They (11) boring!

Jack (12) you and your friends good students?

Toby Yes, we (13)! We (14) really nice!