LEARNING BODY PARTS

Hi everyone! How are you? These days with some of our pupils we've been learning body and face parts. Here there are the link we use to learn them. Review having a good time!

SIGHT WORDS

Sight words build speed and fluency when reading. Accuracy, speed, and fluency in reading increase reading comprehension. The sight words are a collection of words that a child should learn to recognize without sounding out the letters. Here there are some links where you can practice.
